Recently the residents of the Elms estate, currently part of Wraxall Parish Council, were invited to consider whether we wish to be moved to Nailsea Town Council. The response was a resounding "NO". A matter of months later we are invited to become subsumed into Golden Valley which is part of Nailsea Town Council! What part of "NO" don't you understand. It's a very short word. Perhaps you thought that being represented by two Green clowns might have resulted in an understandable re-think but the answer is still "NO".
