I strongly object to The Elms being included as part of Nailsea and should remain within the Long Ashton Ward.

The residents of The Elms have, on 2 previous occasions. overwhelmingly confirmed their identity is considerably more aligned with Wraxall & Failand Parish.

The LGBCE have not taken sufficient notice of the clear mandate given in the Community Governance Review that The Elms should remain in Wraxall and Failand.

For 27 years as a resident of The Elms, the existing governance is very well established and very effective and that tried and trusted continuity must continue.
