Having resided in Beaconsfield LP for nearly 60 years, the Old Town was always until now the South Ward. The church, market, cricket club and rugby club all being part of this, To suddenly divide it into two was nothing short of ludicrous , Gerrards Cross having no idea ( or probably interest ) in what our problems or ideas are.

I and another 10 people arrived at the polling station last year horrified to be told we no longer belonged to the town, the Gerrards Cross candidates being absolutely foreign to us.
I implore you to return us to one unit as it always was and have the town unified by the current consultation
