Subject: Local Council Ward Consultation Beaconsfield

Categories: Simon, Submissions

Having looked at the ward boundaries and thinking about where people live in the town and where they identify as being part of Beaconsfield, it would be preferable if all of Old Town Beaconsfield were included in the Beaconsfield Ward boundaries, rather than parts of the Old Town being in Gerrards Cross ward. I can't imagine that anyone living in Old Town Beaconsfield would consider themselves as part of Gerrards Cross or well represented by a counsellor from that area.

In the same way it would seem appropriate that Seeleys Estate, Knotty Green and the Sandelswood Estate are all included in the Beaconsfield ward boundaries rather than being in Penn ward boundaries. As I'm sure that all these people identify themselves as residents of Beaconsfield (not Penn) and would look to Beaconsfield councillors to best represent their issues.

Equally, surely it would be preferable to the councillors themselves to be able to focus on established local centres rather than try and represent bits of Gerrards Cross and bits of Beaconsfield and bits of Penn and bits of Beaconsfield?

Thank you for taking this opinion into consideration.

Best regards
