Comment text:

I live in North Fareham (current boundary). The proposed move of the boundary North, to above the M27, is currently an area that I do not associate with "Fareham"; but Winchester. Additionally, the area covering Welborne will not really attain a community spirit in the first few years; and I would be trying to avoid the area due to all the construction works. Fareham "North" for me ends at the boundary with the M27.
