I believe the Ward boundary should remain as it is, with the Elms areas staying in Wraxall & Failand within the Long Ashton Ward.

The transfer of The Elms from Long Ashton Ward to Nailsea Youngwood Ward is an existential crisis to our Parish identity, equality of representation and adds significantly more hindrance in effective local government. The Draft Report does not appear to give suitable consideration of these factors, the results of the Wraxall & Failand Parish Council consultation, nor the recent Community Governance Review.

I don’t understand why the Council won’t listen to the residents of the Elms who have time and again shown they have no appetite for this change by a significant majority. Doesn’t democracy mean you should listen to the people in the Ward?
