I think "Portchester Wicor" should be called "Wicor" Portsdown & Castle should be one or the other. Fareham Town should follow the A32 towards Alders road rather than heading so far SE as it does now. Why is the "Fort Fareham" area named after a feature shoved away in one of the corners? Surely it should be named after a central, prominent feature? Avenue? Really. Highlands would be better. Fareham Park? There's loads of parks in Fareham. Why not name it after the disused railway line that runs through there? Historical and relevant.
