Comment text:

Waltham Abbey Paternoster and waltham Abbey Honey lane at the moment cut the Ninefields estate into two uneven parts Ninefields is 1532 homes of mixed tennancey and ownership That we as a Ressadence association feel some elected officals do not reprosent this estate well as it is a small part of their electorate. Most of the issues on the estate are with EFDC or Essex c.c and we do not have one strong voice to reprocent us This devided boundry Has other implications with agenciesy such as police who do not see Ninefields as a distinct area with policing needs but as part of a larger ward which includes a Truck pk. and a hotel out side the estate which attract a lot of crime other agances again have little comprehension of the area of Ninefields from looking at the split wards.... the estate my well fair better by been a major part of one ward or its own ward ,
