The boundary between Wombourne South West and Himley & Swindon is somewhat bizarre - it would make more sense for the boundary to run along the Bridgnorth Road from Himley and then down Botterham lane to the Smestow Brook? It would also make sense to make the border between Smestow and Wombourne the Smestow Brook rather than the haphazard weaving line it is now? Finally why not place the border between Wombourne South West and South East down the railway walk from the Bridgnorth Road?
