I live in Park Ward (on The Grange Estate) that forms a large part of it.. Since I moved here in the mid nineties there has been a lot of changes. We have lost a Butchers, a Greengrocer, 2 Cake shops, a Bakery (which made everything on the premises), 2 Hairdressers, a Chinese Takeaway, 2 Chip shops, a Laundrette, a Pub, 2 Social Clubs, and Post Offices, We still have 1 Post office in Park Ward but off the Grange estate, and you have to cross a main arterial road to get to it. We have to go to the next constituency for a lot of these. Butcher, Chip Shop, Hairdresser, Pub, and a Post Office you can reach without crossing a main arterial Road. There are a lot of New Houses being planned but very little concern bearing in mind that Grange Park is one of the most deprived areas of Blackpool and we have a large number of elderly and disabled people on the estate. A lot of these cannot make the journey to the next constituency. Our councillors live in the least deprived areas of Blackpool.
