I feel very strongly that the name of Apley should be retained and the ward should be separate from Leegomery. As I recall it took many years for the Post Office to change the name. During that time it was very awkward when having to produce evidence of residence to make simple changes to Bank details and other organisations. It would be backward step and cause administrative problems and costs to change again. For the residents of Apley and Leegomery it is of great benefit to have their own councillors focusing on the individual communities specific needs. It simply sounds like a second rate attempt to cut costs to me. Please do not merge the 2 wards
