

Hanover and Elm Grove should be split, highly populated area and the mass of student accommodations distorts what those that live here full time and for long durations of time. Short term viewpoints differ from those that have settled in the area permanently and not just for the duration of a course.

Uploaded Documents:

None Uploaded