

I live in East Brighton and believe the ward should remain as it is. Neither Rottingdean or Woodingdean should not be included as they are is very distinct from what is an urban area of the city. East Brighton is very much at the inner heart of the city whereas Rottingdean and Woodingdean are at the fringers and the services, needs of residents and demographics are very distinct, and separate councillors are needed to defend those distinct rights and needs.

Uploaded Documents:

None Uploaded