

Southampton City Council

Personal Details:

Name:

E-mail:

Postcode:

Organisation Name:

Comment text:

Kingsland Estate and St Mary's Estate have always been one estate, with the same shared interests and the same socio-economic problems. It would be better to leave them as one, still under the auspices of elected politicians and local government officers who know and understand the problems which Kingsland and St Mary's share. To divide them electorally is making them more vulnerable. They already have little political voice, it feels unjust to weaken that even further.

Uploaded Documents:

None Uploaded