Reviewing Officer (Wolverhampton)

I wish to strongly object to the draconian decision to change Coalway Road's boundary from Penn to Graislely.

There has been No Consultation, certainly not to me and my immediate neighbours.

I have been a resident in Coalway Road for over 30 years and find the way that this decision has need made to be contrived and without any respect for the people of Coalway Road.

Bureaucracy is making nonsensible decisions for the sake of pushing paper around and ticking a box without the consensus of residents who are at the sharp end with someone in their Ivy Tower making decisions which should be made by 'all' – what's the point of trying to fix a problem when it's not broken.

Also, I know that there are Residents in Coalway Road who are already aware that there is a distinct boundary between Penn and Pennfields and have No Affiliation whatsoever or connection with Graislely.

Penn has an identity of its own regarding housing and local facilities, so does Merrythill, Tettenhall, Regis and Wightwick, yet these Wards remain unchanged?

All the people in Coalway Road will be affected by these arbitrary changes with nothing in writing to explain this decision.

People are not sheep in this country and should not be treated so.

I would expect a response by return, but that probably is asking far too much.

Yours faithfully.
