Subject: Lenham ward propsals

Dear Sir/ Madam

I have read with complete dismay that there are ward changes afoot which would move Sandway, Platts Heath, Lenham Heath and Liverton Hill under the umbrella of Headcorn ward. From my point of view this is completely ridiculous. In Platts Heath where we live we are approximately one and a half miles from the centre of Lenham, whereas Headcorn is at least 5miles distant with much open countryside between. With the continued growth of Headcorn is it really realistic to add these hamlets to its portfolio? It concerns me greatly that we would not get the current level of excellent service that we experience and indeed expect from our parish council and district councillors being stuck out on a limb so to speak. Geographically we are closer to Lenham than Headcorn and wish the afore mentioned hamlets to remain under the jurisdiction of Lenham PC.

Regards
