Comment text:

I live at [REDACTED] Boughton Monchelsea. On moving to this address 22 years ago we were in the ward of Boughton Monchelsea. However, a few years later we were shunted into the Park Wood ward. Although only down the road from us, we live within the parish of Boughton Monchelsea and are actively involved with activities within the village and at the village hall. We love walking and all our country walks are taken within the parish as the countryside borders the housing development in which we live. Hence we feel no connection to Park Wood whatsoever in terms of activities or use of facilities. As members of the village we are continually kept informed via the Boughton neighbourhood watch on Facebook of crime incidents or of any suspicious activities. Therefore if I needed to make contact with our local councillor, it would feel more natural and sensible to be dealing with the appointed one for Boughton Monchelsea. Furthermore, I believe the council tax we pay is more than if we lived in an equivalent house in Park Wood as you'll understand that a sum is directed to our parish council, and some PCs are allotted more cash than others for whatever reason. This is not mentioned as a complaint, rather a way of stressing the point that we are more closely tied to Boughton than Park Wood. With thanks Fiona Goodwill
