The naming of Hadleigh West is absurd and very confusing because very little of the area is actually in Hadleigh. Furthermore, there is no general concept of east and west Hadleigh. I would suggest retaining the name of St James for Hadleigh East and using a name like Central Ward for what you have called Hadleigh West. An alternative suggestion would be to use Thundersley North for what you have called Thundersley and use Thundersley South for what you have called Hadleigh West. I appreciate that some of the latter area is in South Benfleet but part of that area is often regarded as Thundersley. e.g. The King John School uses Thundersley in its address.
