We would like to take this opportunity to raise our concerns over the boundary changes from Wychavon District Council relating to the merging of Bowers Hill ward with that of Badsey.

Bowers Hill Hamlet has been in existence for many years with its own history and the community are happy that it remains this way.

Bowers Hill Hamlet runs the length of Willersey Road from Outside Badsey to the border. Some houses are approximately 3 miles from Badsey and are therefore closer to the village of Wickhamford. Does it not make more sense to become part of Wickhamford ward instead? I understand Bowers Hill council services come under Wickhamford.

The community of Bowers Hill would welcome this opportunity to attend a consultation to understand the advantages of such a merge with Badsey and this will give us an opportunity to raise our concerns.

Thank you
