Dear Sir/Madam,

I live in Bishopsgarth Estate, Stockton-on-Tees and have done for the last 46 years.

When I first moved to Bishopsgarth we were

Fairfield and Bishopsgarth then we changed to Elmtree and Bishopsgarth.

We have never been associated with Hardwick!

We have close ties with Fairfield and Elmtree. The majority of the children go to the schools in Elmtree and Fairfield, we use the post office and shops and community centre on those 2 estates. We have easy access to both estates by both foot and road. I would never walk to Hardwick as its much further and not safe. We have no affinity with Hardwick and consider ourselves to be closer to Elmtree and Fairfield. We have a good rapport with our local councillors who understand our area.

I personally think we should be Fairfield North, Elmtree and Bishopsgarth with 3 councillors as we are expecting over 300 new homes adjacent to Bishopsgarth in the next few years. Leave Hardwick with its 2 councillors as it has always been, the ratio electorate to councillors is not much different.

I don't think this review has been publicised enough if it had been I am sure you would have had more comments and suggestions

I only came across it on Facebook today and had never heard about it before, not everyone is on Facebook!

Yours faithfully
