Why do 'officials' have to mess about with something that isn't broke'. I am 52 years old and have lived in Patcham all my life. I must admit that it is not the Patcham that myself and my family love, but nothing is, but this doesn't mean that you have to go and split Patcham into 2. Patcham has existed hell of a lot longer than any of the other wards, but especially those that you are suggesting we team up with. What makes it even worse, I understand that half of Patcham will team up with Westdene, which is the other side of the A23, where is the sense in that. I hope that you will see COMMON sense and leave Patcham exactly where it is.
