Dear Sir/Madam: We are residents of Hove Park. We used to live in Highbank, Westdene and moved to Hove Park almost exactly 40 years ago in 1982 so have an appreciation of the two areas you are consulting on. We have a connection with Westdene – for example I get my hair washed and cut on Eldred Avenue once a week, it's my luxury in life! There's a parade of shops down in the dip there in Eldred Avenue and both my husband and I go to the dentist there as well. The dentist is right next to the parade of shops and we've been going there for five years now give or take a bit. Many residents in Hove Park and Westdene are very angry about the Aldi proposal up at Court Farm. I filled in my form and sent it back quite quickly and left them in no doubt as to my feelings which were plainly expressed! There are many reasons. Traffic was the worst one. Second we have enough supermarkets round here and don't need another one. In my opinion the areas are quite connected with the similar issues at the council and I would support them being joined in a ward. [REDACTED]
