As current councillor for the South Bredon Hill Ward, who does not intend to stand for re-election in 2023, I would like to make the following comment. I support the removal of Westmancote from South Bredon Hill and its move into Bredon. However I think it would be preferable to join Elmley Castle Parish to South Bredon Hill rather than Sedgeberrow. I think that the numbers are roughly equivalent and Elmley Castle being a Bredon Hill village is much closer in its sense of identity to the villages on the south side of the hill than is Sedgeberrow, which is not a Bredon Hill village at all. It is true that Elmley Castle village centre is further by road from Ashton under Hill than is Sedgeberrow, but by foot it is much closer since it shares a border with all the South Bredon Hill villages.
