Organisation Name: I am a Whitchurch Rural Parish Councillor representing Tilstock Ward

Comment text:

I live in Tilstock and as such am in the Whitchurch Rural Parish Council, which is essentially Tilstock, Ash and areas around and in between. Tilstock is much closer to Whixall, with whom we have much more in common. Ash has much more in common with neighbouring villages of Ightfield and Calverhall both at present in different Parish Councils. This reasoning is based mainly on geographical considerations, as Ash and Tilstock are along way apart and there is a dual carriageway in between them.
