Dear Sir/Madam

I write in support of retaining Fulmer with Gerrards Cross for the following reasons:-

1. There are many residents of Fulmer who use Gerrards Cross as their nearest Shopping Centre.
2. Residents in Fulmer use the Gerrards Cross railway station for their nearest rail travel.
3. The Church in Fulmer is already closely associated with St James Church in Gerrards Cross.
4. I help run the Movers & Shakers group (supported by the NHS) in Gerrards Cross. We have many members who travel from Fulmer to Gerrards Cross for this weekly event.
5. Gerrards Cross is Fulmer's closest town for social and administrative purposes.
6. Several members of Fulmer use the Gerrards Cross Library.
7. Fulmer and Gerrards Cross organisations often combine for events like Fulmer Day, etc.
8. The petrol stations at Gerrards Cross are often used by Fulmer residents.
9. The most regular bus service is available in Gerrards Cross.
10. The main Supermarkets, i.e. Tesco, Waitrose are often used by Fulmer residents.
11. The cinema in Gerrards Cross is used by Fulmer residents as the nearest available.
12. Professional services such as Accountants, Solicitors, etc. are easily available in Gerrards Cross for Fulmer residents.
13. The Post Office in Gerrards Cross is used by Fulmer residents.
14. Gerrards Cross residents do not wish to lose their little brother called Fulmer.
15. In summary, the residents of Gerrards Cross have close connections with residents of Fulmer and we feel connected in so many ways.

I speak on behalf of very many Gerrards Cross residents who would be most disappointed to lose their above bond with the residents of Fulmer.

Yours faithfully
