

North Hertfordshire District Council

Personal Details:

Name:

Organisation Name:

Comment text:

Ashwell and Weston: The proposed ward is too large to be effective and convenient. The proposal brings together different types of needs which would as a result be difficult to represent. Urban, large village, small village, rural each have their own challenges and requirements. The above point is compounded if the BAldock development goes ahead, creating a much larger urban area.

Uploaded Documents:

None Uploaded