Comment text:

When you get a chance to read the submission I sent through earlier today, you'll see that the Authority undertook some targeted consultation with households in specific parts of the borough. This was in areas where the Authority wished to propose an alternative ward boundary to those that were set out in the LGBCE recommendations published in February (mostly areas in the West of the borough; and one in Howdon / Wallsend).

3 three further late questionnaires were received as follows:

- A respondent in NE12 [REDACTED] said that they preferred Map A (the LGBCE proposal covering this area) with the reason for the preference being that "it reflects their community"
- A respondent in NE12 [REDACTED] said that they preferred Map A (the LGBCE proposal covering this area) with the reason for the preference being that "it reflects their community"
- A respondent in NE12 [REDACTED] said that they preferred Map A (the LGBCE proposal covering this area) with the reason for the preference being "I want to keep the same councillors"

Ward Boundary Consultation

The Local Government Boundary Commission for England (LGBCE) are conducting a review into the electoral wards in North Tyneside. This is to make sure local councillors all represent about the same number of electors. You can comment directly on the LGBCE's consultation at consultation.lgbce.org.uk

North Tyneside Council intends to respond to the LGBCE's proposals, suggesting some changes.

This includes a possible change to the area you live in. We would like to know which of the attached maps, 'Map A', which is the LGBCE's proposal or 'Map B', which is our proposal, you consider best reflects your community and why.

All responses to this anonymous survey will be dealt with in accordance with our privacy notice which can be found here <https://my.northtyneside.gov.uk/page/20957/privacy-statement>.

If you have any questions about the review of electoral wards please contact engagement@northtyneside.gov.uk or call 0191 643 2828.

Please submit your completed questionnaire by Monday 10 April. Thank you
