Reigate and Banstead are two entities that don't really connect. There is little connection from Reigate to Banstead which is connected to Epsom/Sutton for town centres, St Helier for Hospital and TfL for Rail links/fares and public transport. Reigate is integrated with Redhill/Horley corridor and Hooley/Merstham. It is time council and election wards were no longer linked. Banstead becoming part of Epsom and Reigate standing on its own, perhaps with some extensions into rural districts around it..
