I am a resident of the Hepscoth parish area and have been for 45 years. I have read the proposals from the Commission and also had sight of the Northumberland Conservatives proposals. I am in agreement with the amendments proposed by Northumberland Consrvatives. Whilst I see the reason why the commission would initially propose to split Hepscoth Parish in half we did recently have a consultation on proposals to move part of Hepscoth parish into Morpeth and residents disagreed with this. Whilst this is not entirely the same as this is county rather than parish level I think the spirit / intent of residents from Hepscoth and particularly Southfields estate was clear, they feel part of Hepscoth parish and the area should stay as one in what ever countay area is included within.
