It is silly to group the very north of Whitley bay with wellfield area and the village of earsdon into one st Mary's constituency. They are very different areas. There should be a Whitley sands constituency which hugs the coastline from the Spanish city upwards and goes inland up to about the metro line. Then earsdon should be paired with west monkseaton and wellfield - and then the bit left in the middle should be monkseaton and central Whitley bay north. Those areas would then have common priorities within their boundaries.
