Dear Sir,

I understand that it is planned to join Dormansland Ward with Felbridge Ward to make one larger ward with three District Councillors. I object to this plan in the strongest terms. The two wards are very different in make up. Felbridge is very much an urban ward with several large businesses such as Haskins Garden Centre. Dormansland is very much a rural ward and the businesses tend to be smaller.

The three councillors are likely to be drawn from Felbridge in the future and my fear is that Dormansland and Dormans Park would not get proper representation.

I would urge you to maintain the current position where Dormansland and Dormans Park have two District councillors to support the Parish so that full attention can be given to this population's needs. Felbridge could then continue as a separate ward with its own District Councillor.

We are very satisfied with our two District Councillors who represent us energetically and effectively and we have no wish to be part of a bigger ward.

Yours faithfully
