Related subject: Condover Parish Council

I feel that moving Condover Parish Council to become part of the Bayston Hill Council is counter productive. It would be better to keep our council within the area of South Shropshire which reflects us as a rural community rather than get lost as part of a more urban area. Bayston Hill would be better off pairing up with the new Reabrook/ Bowbrook PC which has the same number of households and constituents. It does not make sense and the individuals who have drawn the lines truly do not understand the geography and make up of Shropshire
