Related subject: Framwellgate and newton hall as you state our Framwellgate and Newton Hall is based entirely on the joint administration's proposals. We were persuaded by its proposal to incorporate electors residing on the new housing estate at Aykley Woods in this division, as we agree that electors here share closer links with the Framwellgate, Pity Me and Newton Hall communities to the north, rather than the city to the south

I believe this statement is correct, however, Aykley Heads is currently in the Parish of the City of Durham.

Using this same argument put forward by the joint administration to change the Ward boundary, I believe we should also replicate this for the Parish boundary and move Aykley Heads into Framwellgate Moor Parish Council boundary which would then, I believe, serve this area better
