To whom it may concern,

I am writing to strongly reject the proposals to split Thames Ditton from Long Ditton in the boundary commission review.

I was actually appalled that this was kept in the dark, and only emerged due to some diligence from our local councillors and residents.

I have been a resident of Thames Ditton since 1986, and during this time, have been very grateful of all the work the council's of the Dittons have provided with direct and appropriate need to the community.

Our residents association has long held seats in the local government and is very proactive in all areas relating to land, roads, housing, green belt, nature, water ways, etc etc.

To drastically divide a community that has stood since the doomsday book, is absurd.

To be frank, it would make more sense to actually increase the Dittons to include Hinchley Wood, bearing in mind the majority of our youngsters attend Hinchley Wood School.

I hope that common sense will prevail.

Please give this due consideration.

With kind regards,
