I am writing regarding the proposed boundary changes which, if implemented, would divide Oxshott between two different wards. Looking at the map, it is clear that the proposed dividing line drawn the A244 has been drawn as a topological convenience rather than having any regard to the sense of community and cohesion within the village Oxshott. I wholly endorse the views advanced by FEDORA that such a move would act to the detriment of planning and funding within Oxshott. The ill-conceived proposal should be rejected.
