Related subject: Oxshott

I strongly disagree with the recommendations of the Boundary Commission to split Oxshott down the A244, and remove the name of Oxshott from the names of the new wards.

Oxshott is an entity: it is a thriving village that has a strong community spirit with facilities such as the Oxshott Sports Club, Oxshott Medical Practice, and indeed the Oxshott Railway Station.

There can be no justification whatsoever for dividing our community - especially by the arbitrary drawing of a line down a main road.

The name of "Oxshott" has existed for years - since 1179: there can be no justification whatsoever for the obliteration of the name of "Oxshott".

Please do not let this go ahead!
