Absolutely ridiculous to even consider splitting the Dittons; why would you do this? Just to even out electoral numbers?
Pretty sure Everyone who lives in the Dittons considers ourselves to be one entity & completely separate from Surbiton, Hinchley Wood (which is considered practically Claygate) or Molesey (east & west - surely you can't split Molesey either??!)
Please do not create division amongst us where there has never been any! In this day & age, unity is much more important than government electoral numbers!!!
