Related subject: The Dittons

I do not agree with the proposed changes to split the Dittons.

Having lived in Long Ditton for 24 years, my wife and I regularly go to and use Thames Ditton – the Angel, Albany, the shops at Winters Bridge (most of which are in Thames Ditton) and those in Thames Ditton itself. We very rarely go to Hinchley Wood.

Long Ditton and Thames Ditton have long been closely connected with similar identity and interests. It seems pointless making the suggested changes.
