Related subject: All the boundaries around Canterbury.

I disagree with going through different boundaries, as you have to pay to go through them, as I live in Whitstable, and travel to Canterbury each week to do my shopping, at Asda and main shopping centre in the main Canterbury town , which would be a joke if it all goes ahead. Especially for the older generation understanding how to sort it out. I know you want people to shop locally but there's not shops here that I like.
