Hello

I support the proposals for Tunstall and Humbledon Ward, Grangetown Ward and Barnes and Thornhill Ward as set out in the Conservatives' response to the LGBCE. I am resident in the proposed Grangetown Ward and strongly agree that Hollycarrside should not be split between two wards and that, moreover, the proposed boundary is not logical to local people.

Using the footpath just south of Hollycarrside, before Ryhope, makes much more sense and is more distinctive. The Central Ward name is too vague and usually councillors in the city refer to Washington Central as 'Central' - I strongly support 'City Centre Ward' instead because most residents call this area the city centre.

Kind regards
