Dear sir/madam,

I am writing as a resident of Ashbrooke to comment on the boundary between Barnes and Thornhill Ward and Tunstall and Humbledon Ward in the review. Streets like Thornhill Park, Thornhill Gardens, Brookside Gardens and Holmlands Park are, despite the name, part of Ashbrooke rather than Thornhill. They have better links with the streets east of Tunstall Rd than they do with Thornhill, which is on the other side of the Thornhill School grounds and which is therefore separate and removed from this Ashbrooke.

I think the grounds of Thornhill, St Mary's and Barbara Priestman Schools should be the border between Barnes and Thornhill Ward and Tunstall and Humbledon Ward. This would allow streets like Thornhill Park, Holmlands Park, Alexandra Park, and others, to be included with the rest of the Ashbrooke area, with which they share their community facilities like Ashbrooke Cricket Club, Backhouse Park, The Rosedene and Ivy House public houses.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
