I strongly support the Conservative proposals to amend Tunstall and Humbledon, Barnes and Thornhill and Grangetown. I consider these - as amended - to be logical wards which reflect natural communities. It would not be sensible to extend the boundary of Grangetown Ward further north because that ward would then be an unusual and incoherent amalgamation of Hendon, Grangetown and Hollycarrside. It is important though that Hollycarrside is within a single ward and the Conservative proposal to use the footpath south of Hollycarrside provides an identifiable boundary that has minimal impact upon elector numbers and does not cause a 'domino effect' in impacting upon other wards.
