I object to the boundaries of trinity ward changing. Many amenities in Trinity ward provide essential services to me and other residents e.g. the hospital, trinity rooms etc. I believe splitting these off from the rest of the town will impact on the cohesion of service provision. As a trinity ward resident I have no connection or relationship to Bisley and Painswick and to be honest it makes no sense at all to create this new ward. I live in Stroud, not these outlining villages. How could a councillor who potentially live several miles away, focusing on village life, really understand and represent the residents of Stroud. The whole idea seems illogical and not at all centred on the needs of local residents.
