Transfer Pheasey to Birmingham as most residents do not see themselves as Walsall residents. This is due to their location.

Brownhills could be moved into Staffordshire ie Cannock as the outer parts of Brownhills West would fit better outside of Walsall.

This is about community identity and how residents access services. In the case of Pheasey, the location cuts them off from Walsall with Barr Beacon being the main reason.

I agree that there should be an equitable split of how people are represented and some of that is about making elected members accountable
I think it's important to
