I live in Nythe which is currently part of the Covingham and Dorcan ward of Swindon. I believe that this ward should have Edison Road and Wheatstone Road as its southern boundary, i.e. no part of Liden should be in Covingham and Dorcan ward. (The part of Liden currently included in Covingham and Dorcan Road should be included instead in Liden, Eldene and Park South Ward).

I also think that Covingham and Dorcan ward should be extended to the north and east to include the area bounded by the railway to the north and the A419 to the east, thus including Greenbridge Retail and Leisure Park in Covingham and Dorcan Ward.

I am not happy that the name of Nythe seems to have been removed from the political map of Swindon at the last reorganisation and I believe that the name of the ward should be changed to Covingham, Nythe and Dorcan ward.

In this area we have a children's playpark, schools, (good for people who have children), a community centre, one somewhat grotty sports pub, and the rugby club. Other than that, there are thousands of homes with a plan to build 1,100 more homes announced last week. How I wish we could have a lovely, civilised licenced restaurant so that those of us who do not drive would be able to enjoy a meal out with friends in a pleasant, calm atmosphere. I know it's not going to happen, but it would be so lovely!
