Related subject: Baildon

I strongly support the proposal put forward by the Baildon Town Council (BTC) to make the ward boundary co-terminus with the area covered by BTC ie bringing the Coach Rd area into the ward but not extending the ward to include Eldwick. Eldwick has no connection, other than a windy road over the moor, with Baildon whereas the Coach Rd area is part of Baildon, both geographically and psychologically. Its administrative separation from Baildon has never made any sense and this opportunity to do the sensible thing should not be missed.
