Comment text:

I am writing to express my concern that there are still proposals to split Eldwick and include some of it in Baildon ward.

In my view this has no logic as Eldwick very clearly sees itself as part of the wider Bingley Community and has no real connection with Baildon other than geographical proximity.

Eldwick is a stand alone entity and should remain so for Council purposes and not be split for some obscure administrative reason. Eldwick has a real Community feel with its own Gala, Beer festival and Bonfire and I feel splitting in the way proposed would only be detrimental to a village which has nothing at all to do with Baildon.

I'm sure I speak for the vast majority of the people of Eldwick when I say for once let common sense prevail and keep Eldwick as one.
