To whom it may concern

We have lived in Eldwick since 1986 and we love the village completely. There is a real sense of community, people know each other, help each other and it is a harmonious place to live.

Eldwick is a village and should always remain as a village.

The idea that it should be split and part of it made into a Baildon ward seems ludicrous to us. Baildon is a long way away.

Eldwick should remain as a whole village and as part of the Bingley ward.

It should not be split as part of a hidden agenda just to comply with numbers relating to voting!

Yours Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
