Related subject: Boundary changes Eldwick

The suggestion that part of Eldwick should be classed as part of Baildon, which is itself a part of Shipley, i.e. a completely different town, is ludicrous. This nothing but blatant gerrymandering and whoever proposed it should be subjected to the most rigorous scrutiny of their motives. Why not move this part of Eldwick to, say, Halifax for example? would ttis serve their purposes?
I look forward to your reply.
