Dear Sirs

You are currently reviewing the Bingley Ward and there is a proposal to split the village of Eldwick between Bingley and Baildon.

I am a resident of Eldwick. The village of Eldwick has no geographical or historical connection to Baildon and has always identified itself with Bingley. Indeed the areas of Eldwick and Baildon are separated by the substantial expanse of Baildon Moor.

It is totally illogical to even consider splitting Eldwick which itself is mainly self contained but physically connected to Bingley.

Whoever suggested the split has no understanding of the village of Eldwick and I sincerely hope the idea is dismissed without any further consideration

Yours faithfully
